

Local programing is being sacrificed to the ideology of a owner of concentrated power over my airways. This is a perfect example of why the commission must re think this whole issue. What is good for mega corperations is not necessarily good for my community.